

Be Determined To Increase Your Affluence

Being a woman is expensive when it doesn't have to be. Thankfully, you learned this after reading chapter 3. This was a very short chapter because the real hustle starts in chapter 4. Follow this checklist to make sure that you are not losing money.

- Shop online. That way you'll save money and get your stuff without having them segregated based on gender.
- Forget about pink and flowers. Female and male products do the same thing. Really, look it up.
- Invest like a woman. Visit <http://elennyfrometa.com/ellevest> to learn how.
- Save money and maximize your income. Learn how by doing your research, reading chapter 4, and visiting my site.
- Be able to answer this question, would you be financially stable if you get divorced? If that question does not apply to you, are you financially stable now?
